COACH'S PHILOSOPHY

As a coach, Perica Ognjenovic likes to playing offensive football.

His favorite formations are 4-3-3 and 3-5-2.

He pays attention to the physical and psychological state of his squad.
His philosophy is that the result of the game at any given moment can be positive or negative, but the squad at all times must have a plan to give the answer.

He likes to make decisions and change the rhythm of the game with changes not only when the team loses, but also when it wins. He pays a lot of attention to the whole squad.
Every player is equally important for him,
from the starting player, to the bench player.
